

Sam Noble Museum
THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Public lectures

We invite you to come learn about evolution and animal behavior during this exciting and unique public lecture series, featuring experts from across the country.

All public talks will be at 7:00 p.m. in the Sam Noble Museum Kerr Auditorium

DR. CRAIG PACKER, UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Socio-Ecology and Conservation of African Lions
Monday, January 28

DR. HANS HOFMAN, UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS - AUSTIN

Evolution of the Social Brain
Wednesday, February 13

DR. ELLEN KETTERSON, INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Junco Journeys: Can a Backyard Bird Be an Evolutionary Rock Star?
Tuesday, February 26

DR. JONATHAN LOSOS, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

Lizards in an Evolutionary Tree: Studying Biodiversity in the Field and in the Lab
Tuesday, April 2

DR. TOM SEELEY, CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Honeybee Democracy
Tuesday, April 23

For more information, please contact course instructors
Ingo Schlupp (schlupp@ou.edu) or Ola Fincke (fincke@ou.edu).